

Zella Community Observe Province's 50th Birthday

On Friday evening, June 10, the ladies of the Zella community were host to 44 old-timers at the school to commemorate the Jubilee of Alberta.

The school was decorated with apple blossoms, tulips, a bouquet of old-timer dandelions and a beautiful chalk drawing of Mt. Rundle done by Janice McDonald, to complete the anniversary motif.

Mr. E. Wiggins took pictures of the old timers and photos can be procured through him.

Guests were seated at tables and a luncheon banquet was served to approximately 125 guests. Mr. J. B. Worthington was master of ceremonies and wished greetings to Mr. C. B. Mr. Alex Ross reminisced on collecting taxes to pay the teacher's salary in early years. Mr. Len Jones spoke of the prairie fires and his experiences.

The toast to the Queen was given by Mr. E. Craig with Rev. C. C. Armstrong proposing the toast to old-timers. Mr. E. Craig, who presided over the toast to the ladies who entered to the banquet.

GOLF NOTES

(Contributed by Various Fanatics)

On June 9, eleven ladies braved the heat to play the hidden hole competition with Mrs. McNicol turning in the lowest score on hole No. 4, after a tie with Mrs. Currie on No. 6.

Tea money, together with payment of tournament fees and money for food, was $2.20.

The competition for this week will be the lowest number of strokes used to play all even holes. The club would like to see more business entered in these competitions.

Playings on Wednesday or Thursday evening. Starting time for the regular Thursday games is 2 to 2:30.

Tea will be served, weather permitting, from 3:30 to 4 p.m.

MORE ABOUT RULES

Rule 29 - Unplayable ball: "If either match and stroke play, if a player deems his ball to be unplayable he shall either (a) play a ball as provided for in clause 1 (a) provided for in clause 1 (a) as near, as possible at the spot from which the original ball was played; or (b) drop and play a ball under penalty of two strokes, keeping the point from which the ball was lifted between himself and the hole, if this is impossible he shall drop and play a ball under penalty of two strokes as near as possible to the spot in which the ball was lifted, but not nearer the hole."

Note: The player is the sole judge as to when his ball is unplayable. It may be declared unplayable at any place on the course.

The above rule seems self-explanatory. It was decided at the meeting to adopt it as written, thus changing the penalty of two strokes instead of one as before in order to simplify the game for those playing in competitions on other courses. It was also felt that the stiffer penalty would act as an inducement where interests and help him build constructive social attitudes.

At the conclusion of the film Rev. Traub conducted a very successful "buzz" session; groups were formed of ten members and each group was given one question and each member was asked to give a direct answer to the question; then all answers were read.

Mrs. Ross Youngs, program coordinator.

Those present saw the experiences of three different children, illustrating vividly how parental indifference, lack of imagination and emotional conflict in the home can destroy the confidence, enthusiasm which is necessary for a child's success at school.

On the positive was shown how the parents of one youngster did co-operate with the teacher to encourage his interests and help him build constructive social attitudes.

The decision of Rule 29 thereby make local rules 2 and 3 on the new cards invalid.

CREMONA NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Intended for last week.

Mr. G. M. McLeavy is in Didsbury hospital recovering from a heart attack.

A bridal shower was given Monday, May 30 in honor of Mrs. J. Malachuk, nee Evelyn Hettlinger. Her many friends gathered in the basement of the United Church to present their gifts, and all joined in wishing the young couple a long and happy wedded life.

Mr. John Tippe was the lucky winner of a 24-inch TV set at the Bingo game in Calgary last Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Wiebe returned home from Calgary this week with her new born daughter, Jacqueline.

The weatherman favored us with perfect day for the Cremona and district track meet. Children from Cremona and eight nearby schools met at the Cremona sports grounds to compete in an extensive program of active sports followed by a shot and ball tournament.

The contestant who won the highest percentage of the points for which they competed will receive medals presented by the ATA local. Winner of the girls medal was Bonny Bagnall, 7 years old, of Dax Pound, while Jack Bellamy and John Reid both of Cremona, tie for the boys' top percentage and will both receive medals. John is 7 and Jack is 17 years of age.

Mr. A. Meines and family have purchased the house built by G. Lalonde, and taken up residence there.

Mrs. Glen Johnston returned Thursday from Edmonton where she attended the W. I. Provincial Conference.

Home and School Association Have Interesting Meeting

The regular meeting of the Didsbury Home and School Association was held in the auditorium on Monday, June 13. The meeting opened with the singing of O'Canada and the Home and School prayer. Following this Mrs. R. Clarke read the minutes of the previous meeting.

Owing to Mr. C. R. Murray's inability to finish his term as president, due to other commitments Mrs. R. Clarke was elected to take over the post for the ensuing year with Mr. Wm. Biore as vice-president.

The membership committee reported 141 charter members and total membership of 149. The committee convener, Mrs. Brado, advised that it is possible that names of one couple have been lost from the membership list, as dues do not tally with the number of names. If you have paid your dues and have not received your membership card, please contact Mrs. Brado, Mrs. E. Wiggins or Mrs. E. Dupont.

Mrs. R. Stevens, town librarian, asked for donations of pictures and books, to be used by the Junior Children's Reading Class, which will meet each Thursday afternoon in the Lions hall during July and August. The parent room count was taken and again Miss Leitz' room won the banner.

The new Home and School song was introduced by Mrs. Grace Banta accompanied by Mrs. C. Leeson. Rev. Traub announced the program for the evening, "Family Circles."

This was a very interesting film and showed how the inter-play of home and school influences affect the development of today's youngsters. In seeking a satisfactory home for family life to replace the stern discipline of Victorian days parents must take account of the strongest community influence - "The School."

Those present saw the experiences of three different children, illustrating vividly how parental indifference, lack of imagination and emotional conflict in the home can destroy the confidence, enthusiasm which is necessary for a child's success at school.

On the positive was shown how the parents of one youngster did co-operate with the teacher to encourage his interests and help him build constructive social attitudes.

At the conclusion of the film Rev. Traub conducted a very successful "buzz" session; groups were formed of ten members and each group was given one question and each member was asked to give a direct answer to the question; then all answers were read.

CARSTAIRS GIRL WINS TRIP TO NEW YORK

Betty Rieder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Rieder and grade 11 student of the Carstairs High School will leave Friday July 1 on the 6th annual United Nations Pilgrimage Youth Tour to New York. This trip is sponsored by the Sunnyslope Odd-fellows Lodge and the delegates were chosen by a speaking contest held in Acme, March 15. Betty chose as her topic "Sir Winston Churchill" and gave a 15 minute speech on this topic. She leaves Calgary by train with 8 other Alberta Students to Winnipeg. From Winnipeg they travel by bus to Fargo, North Dakota, where they join a delegation of 34 student and 3 adult leaders from 3 states and 3 provinces. Fargo, North Dakota being where the actual tour begins, they start for New York in a chartered bus. Highlights of the trip will be a visit to the Ottawa Parliament Buildings, an all-night cruise down the St. Lawrence from Montreal to Quebec and a week in New York. We wish Betty a very enjoyable trip.

In The Legislature

EDMONTON — The Alberta Legislature won't be the same since the retirement last week of Robert A. (Bob) Anderson, who has served as assistant clerk and clerk of the house for more than 40 years. Since his appointment in 1914, only 9 years after Alberta became a province, Bob has sat as "clerk of the table" through 46 sessions of the legislature, has served under five different speakers of the house, and has established a length of service record unequalled in Canada.

Although he has sat as an impartial observer through some of the stormiest and bitterest debates of the Alberta house, he has managed to remain the most popular and highly regarded member of the public service so far as members of the legislature are concerned.

Perhaps it has been his boundless good nature and eager willingness to help that has kept him that way. Bob has been anxious to help anyone. Social Credit M.L.A.s admit that when they were elected to the legislature in 1935, they couldn't even find their way to the men's washroom.

Bob became their "encyclopedia" on parliamentary rules and procedures having forgotten more points in 40 years than any of the five speakers of the house under whom he has served.

Veteran members and newcomers alike have always gone to Bob for advice on how and when to bring up subjects into discussion on the floor of the house. Forty years of close contact with legislative trials and turmoil have given Bob many memories, too. And he says most of them are pleasant. It was obvious last week that he felt sorry about leaving as he cleared nearly half a century's accumulation of documents, papers and mementoes and ends from his big mahogany roll-top desk. Among the pleasant memories is the point in 1946 when he received an Imperial Service Order from the King. The award is restricted to persons who begin at least 25 years to the public service, and who hold the position of deputy minister or its equivalent. There are only 750 of the awards in the British Commonwealth, and only 250 go outside Great Britain.

During the 1954 session of the legislature, Bob became the only life member of the Alberta Legislative Press Gallery Association.

He was guest of honor last week when fellow employees and friends presented him with a wrist watch. Mrs. Anderson was there too and received a gift of jewelry. Bob's immediate plans include a two-week trip to Banff, following which he will return to Edmonton and watch the results of the June 29 provincial election. Then in August, if a special session of the legislature is called, he will exercise his right as a member of the Press Gallery Association and observe proceedings from above with members of the working press.

OUR CLIMATE DIFFERENT

Whether or not a guaranteed annual wage would ever prove possible in the United States, the situation is entirely different in Canada, points out The Financial Post.

Before there could be any guarantee of an annual wage for labor, the market and the price for the products of labor would also have to be guaranteed. In the United States, where only a relatively small percentage of total production must find a market outside the country, that might be possible though it could be costly in more ways than one. In Canada, on the other hand, where a very substantial proportion of our total production must be exported it just isn't feasible at all.

Convention Business

More than $70 million worth of business palaver will dip into the ears of Canadian convention goers this year, writes Jon Kiernan in The Financial Post. It's the "best year yet" for the business confab supply trades.

Some 1,000 associations, trade groups, and societies have or will hold full dress meetings in Canada in 1955 and an even larger number of company conventions, or internal conclaves, will assemble within the major convention centres, thereby taxing the nation's group business facilities almost to the utmost. A survey of convention goers and suppliers shows that some 100,000 people will sit as delegates at the regional, national, and international association meetings already scheduled and that as many or more businessmen will assemble privately at the same convention centres for sales and other internal conventions.

Twenty-four out of every 100 Canadians have telephones.

THE JOHN DEERE No. 5 POWER MOWER
The John Deere No. 5 Power Mower is doubly protected against breakage. If the cutter bar should hit a hidden field obstruction, a safety spring release allows the entire mower to swing back out of danger. If the cutter bar becomes clogged, a safety slip clutch prevents breakage. These are only two of the many reasons why you should see the No. 5 at our store soon.

The Three R's . . .

By Paulinus

I wish there was some word other than "education" that I could use in discussing what passes for education in Alberta. To call it "education" is prostitution of a good honest word.

Education, Alberta style, consists of a million dollars worth of buildings and equipment patrolled by men and women whose first duty is to the ATA and secondly to the happiness and well-being of the children who pass their way. Note, I say happiness and well-being—any actual knowledge the student acquires in ten or twelve years of school life is purely incidental—or accidental. The present system is a hedge-podge of psychiatry, sociology and plain kindergarten. "Larmin" is far down the scale.

I noted a time-table chalked up on the black board of our town school. Periods through the day were limited to half an hour. No youngster, nor adult, for that matter, can begin to concentrate on a subject in the short space of half an hour—or what is left in half an hour after one has arranged one's books, sharpened one's pencils and attended to all the preliminaries. When one considers, too, the time lost in initiating ceremonies, drama rehearsals, Christmas concert activities, magazine research work, and graduation exercises, usually commenced several weeks before the end of the term, it is easy to see that the "Larmin" part is badly neglected.

This writer, and I believe that I have lots of support, still believe in the three R's. Without a sound knowledge of the three R's further study is hampered, if not entirely impossible. Without a proper grounding in reading and writing a man or woman is illiterate in the most literal sense of the word. "Ain't saw," "has went," "have did," may pass for English in Alberta, even among teachers and back benches, but beyond the borders of Alberta such ungrammatical English would shock the listener.

The truth of the matter is that the schools make no effort to teach English. What is rather tragic about the whole thing, they seem proud of it. Said a school superintendent, "Grammar? We don't teach grammar. Just as long as a child can make himself understood etc. etc." That, I maintain, is sabotage—sabotage of the language of Shakespeare, Shelley and Keats. From there it is but a short step to "pidgin" English. Not only is it a betrayal of our children, it deserves better treatment.

The modern theory goes something like this. Why bother with arithmetic when we have adding machines? Why bother with writing and spelling when we have typewriters and dictionaries? Who wants to read when there are television and movies? This philosophy breeds, among other things, laziness. It would be strange, indeed, if the time-saving inventions produced by the mental giants of our age served only to atrophy the brains of their descendants. In fact, atrophy has already set in. For example, not the test system, now more or less universal. The student is no longer asked a question and expected to write his reply. He is given a printed form along with each question; there are three or four answers, one correct. All he had to do is mark the correct one. So much less effort.

However, before one can reinstate

Squirrel Cage . . .

"Jamieson, is this yours?" asked the boss in a threatening voice, as he pointed to a cigarette butt on the floor.

"Not at all," said Jamieson pleasantly. "You saw it first."

"Your hair needs cutting badly," "It does not," stated the customer, seating himself in the chair. "It needs cutting nicely. You cut it nicely last time."

A young man, who had come to the city from a small rural community, had toiled diligently until at last he had obtained some prominence in the banking world. Belatedly he returned for a visit to his old home town, half expecting that the greater part of the community would be out to meet him at the station, and that considerable fuss would be made over the local boy who had made good. To his disappointment there was not a soul around when he alighted at the station platform. He waited doubtfully as several people came and went, none of them giving him so much as a glance. At last he was recognized by an old baggage handler who shuffled forward and looked at him with some interest. "Hello George," the old man said at last, goin' away?"

The three R's in school curriculum, one must bring the fourth R back into use. I refer to the rod. Let me hasten to explain I use the word symbolically only. If whacking a child on the backside is brutal let us have nothing to do with it. What I do advocate is a tightening up of discipline, obedience and respect, or we will hear them when they reach teenage—which is the situation today. This, too, is an old-fashioned theory, but in those old-fashioned days parents still held the reins.

I submit that it is time for a change. There must be a return to fundamentals. A banker acquaintance of mine had an apt way of reminding his customers of the importance of attending to their bank business. So many of them would say that they had been too busy to make arrangements for this and that. To which my banker friend would say, "What do you mean, too busy? If you had to drive to the city and knew your gas tank was empty would it make sense for you to jump in the car and say you could not stop to fill it up because you were in too much of a hurry?" Then he would continue "It's the same with your finances. My friend, finance is the fuel that keeps your car going. They are keeping your business going, just like basic musts."

I think this story is applicable to the Alberta education system. Is it not foolish for the school administrators to say, "We have no time for the three R's—We are too busy teaching the Atomic Theory, or safe driving, or social economy, or —?" The three R's are basic "musts."

Through The Study Window

By REV. C. C. ARMSTRONG

The historical committee, of the Alberta Conference of the United Church, gave a resume of the history of the church in Alberta. It traced out in considerable detail the developing work of the church, particularly in Northern Alberta. We were reminded of the coming of Robt. T. Rundle, in 1840; of H.B. Steinhilber; the McDougalls, and others who pioneered in the spiritual life of the province.

Dr. R. E. Finlay, minister since 1901, and still very active, gave a brief account of the early days of his ministry. He had much more to say, but unfortunately the lateness of the hour meant that his narrative had to be severely curtailed.

I think some felt that the historical sketches were altogether too long and had resulted in a very dull evening, but I enjoyed it. Perhaps the fact that I had spent some time in the district served by these old timers gave a personal touch to their reminiscences.

History-in-the-making is always more interesting after an appetizer of history-in-the-telling. What goes on round about us in the present is always a product of what has happened in the past. There are so few memories of the past that are visible to us. There are no old forts, no prairie schooners, no "first plough" west of the Great Lakes, and only the contributions from the past then memories of the first church buildings. Yet without proper respect for history-in-the-telling, there can be no real appreciation of the present. The "fifty golden years" didn't begin until after there had been a period of preparation going back as far as the days of Alexander McKenzie in the closing years of the 18th century. The first white man to see Banff was a missionary who reached there sixty-five years before the province was formed. The first beef cattle in Alberta were introduced by the missionaries near Morley.

Socially, economically and culturally the church people in Alberta have given us a rich inheritance. Spiritually they gave us infinitely more than we ever realize. "These

GRASS THOSE ROADSIDES: What
wants to see weeds of all description growing on the roadsides and in the ditches? Where new grades have been built and the ground has been smoothed down grass should be seeded as soon as possible. A good catch of grass will go a long way in preventing the weed nuisance, and at the same time it will till the ground in place so that water erosion will not be likely to occur. It is still the policy of your Agricultural Service Board to supply the grass seed free to seed down these newly built grades. If you live beside or near one of these newly graded roads let us know about it so that we can furnish you with the grass to seed
it down. We are using Creeping
Red Fescue and White Dutch Clover
When this is well established it will offer livestock grazing or hay and the white dutch clover will withstand 2-4-D application to a marked degree. Let us know about it if you have a roadside that should be seeded down to grass.

District Couple Honored
On 25th Anniversary

On Saturday evening last June 4
on the occasion of Mr. and Mrs.
Herbert Goetjen's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary a group of neighbors, friends and relatives pleasantly surprised them in coming to their home for the evening.

The evening entertainment consisted of a good old-fashioned singing with Mr. Jack Robertson, as leader, he also sang a couple of fitting comic songs and Mr. Ken Card sang a request number. Mr.
Fred Meis entertained with a few of his lively jokes, thus the group were entertained. Mrs. Henry Wilshusen had made and decorated a lovely cake for the occasion which was served with the lunch by the ladies and after lunch Mr. Clifford Murphy on behalf of the group presented the honored couple with a purse from all those present, to which they both responded, thanking all for the lovely evening as in memory, as they continue life's highway together. The party broke up with the singing of "For Thine Art Jolly Good Fellows" and the well wishes of all those in attendance.

On Sunday evening relatives of Mr.
and Mrs. Herbert Goetjen gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Goetjen of Jackson to honor the former couple on their silver wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Goetjen were seated at a table on which was graced the beautiful 3 tier anniversary cake flanked by vases of tulips also seated with them were the formers mother Mrs. K. Goetjen and
Mr. and Mrs. Herman Papke of Dids-

Lyle Good of Garfield, the wedding attendants of former years were also present. Mr. Papke, in the course of the evening made the presentation of

I WILL NOT VOTE
SOCIAL CREDIT BECAUSE

1. I do not like their educational policy. I admit that the six week training program might be justified to ease the teacher shortage on a temporary basis but I can see no justification for cutting down the regular teacher-training course from two years to one year with the resultant lowering of our general educational standards.

2. I do not like their gas export policy. I believe that when we have something to sell we should sell it to whoever wants it. I further believe that government policy in this regard has needlessly delayed the development of our gas fields and has lost markets that may never be recovered.

3. I do not like their road policy.
I believe that the small communities of this province, many of which were here before the Province was formed, deserve some consideration and the Government road policy has ignored them entirely. While I do not maintain that the main highways should pass through these communities I do think that they should pass as near as possible to them and that hard surfaced connecting links should be built and maintained by the Provincial Government. This has not been the policy of the Government in the past and any change in that policy have been made since the election was called.

4. I do not like their municipal finance policy. The municipalities are entitled to share in the gasoline tax money as a matter of right and such money should not be handed out to them on the basis of a dole.
When this money was first paid
over to them as a Municipal Assistance Grant it was paid conditionally. In effect the Government told the Municipal Councils that they could not be trusted with the spending of the money and they could only have same if they did certain specified things. If our Municipalities Councils are going to be dictated to in this manner by the Provincial Government we may as well dispense with them and let Edmonton run the whole show.

5. I do not like their school finance policy. There is too much dictation from Edmonton to our elected school boards. Here again we find distrust of the ability of our Board Members to handle their own affairs.
Here again we find conditions placed upon the giving of assistance which could only be interpreted as indirect
the towns and villages of Alberta representatives of the people. I refer particularly to school grants given this year which were made conditional upon the Board reducing its request on the Councils to 25 mills.

6. I do not like their secondary road grants policy. I agree that the rural municipalities should have grants to maintain market roads but I also think these same grants would be given to the urban centres covering such roads within their boundaries. Experience has shown us that the towns and villages of Alberta
cannot, unassisted, build and maintain roads of a satisfactory standard to carry through traffic on these roads as well as their own local traffic. A visit to practically any small town in Alberta will bear out this statement.

After giving the above points due consideration I am voting for BEN BROWN in the election on June 29th, next.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Forces" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services
this Sunday. Scriptural selections from the King James version of the Bible stress the supremacy of spiritual power and include the account of Christ Jesus feeding the multitude as recorded by Matthew (14:
14-20) and John's account (6: 16-
21) of Jesus walking on the sea.

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following:
(7:21-23): "God never ordained a material law to annul the spiritual law. If there were such a material law, it would oppose the supremacies of Spirit, God and impug-ne the wisdom of the creator."

Jesus walked on the waves fed the multitude, healed the sick, and raised the dead in direct opposition to material laws."

And he and Mrs. Good did some reminiscing of that by-gone day when they acted as best-man and brides-maid, causing much laughter and merriment as they related some of the events that took place.

Lunch was served and to complete the evening entertainment, Mrs. Louis Hildebrandt took some pictures of the honored guests.

One of the highlights of the evening was a telephone call to their parents from Mrs. Marjorie Johnson, a daughter and son Leslie, of Valleyview, Alberta, not able to be present for this occasion because of impossible roads.

In the quality of hay the advantages of early harvesting are important, careful planning of the hay-making operations will result in a better quality forage.

By early harvesting of forage crops the greatest yield of digestible feed value will be obtained, this is much needed protein and vitamin contents. Another advantage of early haying is that a better grazing value will be realized from the regrowth or aftermath. In seeded hay fields a better second cut will be taken when the first cut is taken early.

The time to cut the hay for maximum quality is as soon as the grasses have headed, in the case of legumes just as they are coming into bloom. When the two are grown together in a mixture the stages of maturity of both the grass and legume must be considered and a balance struck for cutting time. By choosing the proper time the hay as well as high in quality will have a low percentage of fibrous undigestible matter.

Adverse weather is often a problem and is faced yearly at haying time. Many farmers are changing to the silage method of putting up the first cut, in seeded hay fields, a silage.

When the hay is cut early the tonnage may be slightly reduced but with the better quality feed and increased yield in aftermath grazing or second cutting it is a profitable business to harvest hay early.

Would the farmer who has the Keystone Dehomer from this office please return same.

SHIPMENT OF BAD GAS RECEIVED IN CONSORT

Not only was the weather situation bothering the farmers last week, but many were scratching their puzzled heads as to what had gone wrong with their tractors. They wouldn't pull, they got hot for no reason, they acted queer and some wouldn't stop when the ignition was turned off. Much abusive language and little gasoline was used until it was found that the gasoline was at fault.

What happened is not known definitely as yet, but Jim McKee of the Maple Leaf bulk station apparently received a shipment of bad gas. Before he realized it some of the gas had been delivered to various farmers and the trouble started. Despite a phone call to Calgary, they still didn't believe Jim and his tale of the gas. However, an investigation was conducted although the result is not known at time of writing except that a shipment of No. 1 gas has since been received.

There were some mighty irate farmers around for a few days.

FIERY ex-ballet dancer Lenora Davis lost her battle to save a home for her three dogs and three robin eggs. Told to give up her house near Chicago a year ago because the land was needed for a spurroad the 32-year-old divorcee refused to budge and at one time drove off the law with a pistol. But recently, she was bodily evicted, her home doused with oil and burned to the ground.

FALLEN TIMBER

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Intended for last week, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Monecy, June Martin, and Cecil, were Edmonton visitors over the weekend.

Everyone please note that Church and Sunday School will commence at 11:00 a.m. beginning June 12. Mrs. Lily McGaffin, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Moore Master Gary Moore all of Calgary were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Howton.

The regular meeting of the Busy Bees was held at the home of Mrs. Ettie Loughheed with 8 members and two visitors present. The two visitors later joined the club. It was decided that each lady bring 6 articles instead of 5 to the school picnic fish pond, 3 for girls and 3 for boys. Mrs. Delores McMullen was the lucky winner of the ten cent draw. After the business session all joined in singing "God Save Our Queen." A most delightful lunch was served by Mrs. Clive Admasen, and Mrs. Dorothy Moore. Don't forget the next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Cooper here in the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Fyten and family and Mr. and Mrs. Barry McMullen and family took in the Bearber Stampede.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Taynor and family, Miss Anita Monecy, Miss Margaret Monecy and Mr. George Austin were visitors at the John Howton home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McGaffin were visitors in the district Saturday. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McGaffin who will be graduating from the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel in Vancouver on June 17 as ministers.

We hope to see a good turnout on Saturday to work on the new church. They are going to be laying a floor of plywood and linoleum and with lots of help the work should go quickly and the floor be finished by night.

Base Metals Demand

U.S. stockpiling of minerals — probably the biggest single factor in metal and mineral markets in recent years — has made such substantial progress that the supply-demand situation on a number of items may change before long, says The Financial Post.

Nickel is still tight. Selenium is apparently in greater demand than ever because of copper strikes. But there is a stockpile adequately of columbium and tantalum. And stimulated by U.S. Government premium prices, U.S. domestic tungsten production now exceeds consumption.

By the end of 1954, the U.S. stockpile had acquired $5 billions of materials. In addition, about $2.6 billions worth of strategic materials were on order for the stockpile or were expected to be acquired under Defense Production contracts or through exchange or agricultural commodities.

The world's biggest solar mirror, situated a mile above sea level in the Pyrenees, focuses enough of the sun's heat to melt a 100-pound block of iron in an hour, states the current Reader's Digest. A high wall faced with mirrors reflects the sunlight into a concave mirror 33 feet wide, concentrates the light into a narrow beam and creates temperatures of over 5,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

PULP MILL WASTE

A major "break" in the drive to find ways of using the millions of gallons of waste liquor which pour down the drains in Canada's pulp and paper mills was revealed recently, reports The Financial Post.

It's a revolutionary new process, developed over a three-year period at the laboratories of the Pulp & Paper Research Institute of Canada. Using equipment of simple design, said Dr. W. H. Gauvin, of McGill and the Institute, sulphate spent liquors in particular can be processed quickly through a series of physical operations and chemical reactions to yield some 70% of the sulphur originally present.

BEN BROWN

Is it any wonder then, that we are finding the very abuses a strong opposition will prevent, appearing more and more frequently in the actions of our provincial government and it's social credit members.

No useful purpose would be served here, by outlining the instance of flagrant inefficiency and waste in spending of Provincial funds by the Government, nor the disregard members of the social credit government have shown for the ethics governing their offices. A member of these instances have been definitely proven and publicized, which we are all quite aware of and many of us were not at all surprised. They do, however, lead us to wonder how many other instances, perhaps of greater magnitude, have not been exposed. There are many straws in the wind which give rise to speculation.

No doubt one of the most distinguishing marks of greatness in an individual or a government is Tolerance. With Tolerance goes understanding and a desire to view all sides of a question, that a sound conclusion may be reached. It is a prime requisite of intelligence and goes far to keep an individual humble and his judgement clear. This very characteristic has always been decidedly lacking in our Social Credit Government and its members. They have had little regard for the rights of others and now that their actions have been brought to light and an accounting is at hand, they act like spoiled children and attempt to put the blame for their own mistakes, onto the shoulders of the opposition which exposed them.

Further to this next week.

Luft will have the August meeting.

An enjoyable evening was spent at the school on Thursday in honor of the province's 50th anniversary. Ball was played, after which a program was held, mostly by the school children, consisting of songs and a play, followed by community singing.

Mr. A. L. Hogg read an account of the old-timers and the history of the district. Among those present who were in the district before 1908 were Mr. S. Blain Sr. and Mr. Frank Heskelon.

We wish a speedy recovery to Mrs. O. Blain and Mrs. J. Bagshaw, who are hospital patients. Also to Lillian Hoesgood.

Please note: There should be a correction on last week's prize winners at Edmonton: it should read Westcott Sr. not Westward Ho.

Jubilee Day At Hartman

A very delightful Jubilee program was held at the school on Thursday, June 9, with the students taking part. A pageant was given depicting the early settlers, missionaries, priests, trading companies, religion and education, of the past.

This was followed by the doctors, nurses, farmers, of men, miners, etc., which comprise the people of today, giving their gifts to Alberta.

The third part was taken by the junior room and they presented the 50th Jubilee birthday party and had a birthday cake with candles, depicting the 50 years.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. Manson, Mr. "Grandpa" Wiper, Mrs. Edith Wiper of Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Oppen and Mr. and Mrs. Worthington of Zella. They represented the old-timers of the two districts, and a very interesting and educational talk was given by each of the above mentioned gentlemen, telling of the surrounding country and their experiences when they came here.

Several festival numbers were rendered and the afternoon came to a close with the cutting of the cake by Mrs. Manson, the oldest lady present, and Mrs. Wiper, as the youngest "old-timer" had the pleasure of blowing out the candles. Entertainment was then served a piece of the cake, which had been made for the occasion by Mrs. H. Harder.

Mr. Bieber, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Korschak, the teachers, are to be congratulated for their presentation. A tour was made of the separate school rooms to view the work done by the students and all felt that the new school is a wonderful improvement, with its freshly painted walls and nice floors, instead of the old fashioned oiled ones which were so hard to keep clean.

Winners in the Westward Ho Club at the achievement day and sale held at Carstairs on Wednesday, June 8, were: 1st, Peggy Rock; 2nd, Dale Dodd; 3rd, Norman Spooner; 4th, Arthur Knights; 5th, Glen Dodd. Several local farmers were in attendance.

Mrs. M. A. Knights spent several days last week visiting relatives in Calgary and Black Diamond.

The Hartman ball club played Madden on Sunday at Hartman. Score: Hartman 11, Madden 8.

The picnic to be held at Bowness on the usual meeting day, June 6th. Meet for dinner at 12:30. The Rugby Club and their families are invited to attend. Mrs. P. Hoesgood and Mrs. Vipond canvassed for cancer donations and $18 was collected. Mrs. Vipond gave a very interesting report on the Edmonton convention. The tea draw was won by Mrs. Wilfred Luft.

The bit of fun was won by Mrs. P. Hoesgood.
